

Greece Raises Minimum Wage to €650

Decision No. 4241/127 / 30-1-2019 on the increase of the minimum wage was published in Government Gazette B 173.

The standard monthly minimum wage would rise from current € 586 to € 650. The government will also abolish the "sub-minimum" wage which was paid to those under the age of 25. In percentage points, the under-25s will see their wages rise by 27.5 % and while the rest will receive an 11 % increase.
