

The rise of accounting e-books

Details of the electronic bookkeeping and electronic invoicing were presented in the press release given by the finance ministry leadership.

The new system introduces an on-line platform of the tax authorities dedicated to the system, called “myDATA”.

The target is to introduce the system under a pilot scheme on October 1 and its full implementation is expected by the beginning of 2020 along with e-invoicing.